

IV Hydration Therapy R360 – Replenish with Intravenous Vitamins & Vitamin Infusion

Replenish 360 (R360) stands as one of Southern California's leading providers of advanced IV Hydration Therapy and Wellness Services. Our signature vitamin infusion treatments and hydration programs are designed not only to restore your body with essential fluids but also to replenish it with intravenous vitamins, amino acids, antioxidants, and other vital nutrients. Whether you need relief from dehydration, recovery after intense exercise, detoxification from a hangover, or just an overall wellness boost, our R360 Signature Hydration Therapy is tailored to support your lifestyle and health goals.

Along with our IV services, we also provide supplementary wellness solutions including nutrition guidance, massage therapy, personal training, esthetician services, cleansing treatments, acupuncture, and behavioral therapy. With our holistic approach, Replenish 360 ensures every client experiences complete care for mind, body, and overall performance.

Our Mission:

At Replenish 360, our mission is simple: to help you recover, recharge, and restore your best self through safe, effective, and professional IV Hydration Therapy. Life is full of challenges—whether it's fighting off a cold or flu, bouncing back from food poisoning, managing the fatigue of jet lag, or recovering from a late night of celebration. Even athletes pushing their physical limits often need extra hydration and nutrients to optimize performance and recovery.

These everyday challenges often lead to dehydration and nutrient depletion, resulting in fatigue, headaches, weakness, muscle aches, and overall discomfort. Our R360 Signature Hydration Therapy uses carefully administered iv vitamins and fluids to combat these symptoms, giving you the strength, clarity, and energy you need to perform at your best.

Our Vision:

Our vision is to be your most trusted partner in health, wellness, and recovery. Replenish 360 is dedicated to offering reliable and personalized IV Hydration Therapy services both in our relaxing wellness clinic and at your convenience—whether at home, at a hotel, or even at a music festival or special event.

From Coachella and Stagecoach festivals to weddings, birthdays, or athletic tournaments, our mobile team delivers vitamin infusion therapy wherever you need it. By restoring hydration and essential nutrients, we aim to help you recover quickly, improve your performance, and enjoy life's most important moments to the fullest.

Why Choose Replenish 360?

Choosing Replenish 360 means choosing top-quality care from licensed healthcare professionals, registered nurses, nutritionists, massage therapists, acupuncturists, and fitness trainers who prioritize your health and safety. We provide:

- Hygienic, professional, and safe administration of intravenous vitamins and hydration therapy
- Customized treatment plans for fatigue, stress relief, hangovers, muscle soreness, and more
- A holistic approach that supports energy, beauty, clarity, and everyday performance
- Wellness-focused services that go beyond hydration—helping you manage weight, stress, and overall well-being

Our clients enjoy a VIP-level experience, ensuring that every session is relaxing, restorative, and effective.

Indications for R360 Signature Hydration:

Our IV Hydration Therapy is beneficial in a wide range of situations, including:

1. Relief While “Under the Weather”

- Common colds and upper respiratory infections
- Seasonal flu with fever, fatigue, and body aches
- Bronchitis and laryngitis-related symptoms

- Food poisoning or gastroenteritis (nausea, vomiting, diarrhea)
- General malaise, muscle aches, and fatigue
- Mild immune system support during minor illnesses

2. Detoxification and Body Cleansing

- Hangover relief: nausea, headaches, dizziness, weakness, and dehydration
- Improved hydration after alcohol consumption and poor sleep

3. Athletic Recovery and Performance

- Pre- and post-workout recovery for athletes
- Relief from Delayed Onset Muscle Soreness (DOMS)
- Enhanced energy and faster recovery for sports like running, swimming, football, weightlifting, and MMA

4. Other Applications

- Travel fatigue and jet lag recovery
- Support during weight loss programs
- Event preparation (weddings, birthdays, festivals)
- Stress management and relaxation

With our carefully designed hydration solutions, your body will quickly absorb iv vitamins, electrolytes, and nutrients to restore balance, energy, and wellness.

- 1000 ml or 500 ml IV Hydration (Sodium Chloride 0.9% Normal Saline) infused with essential vitamin infusion therapies

Our hydration therapies are designed to be fast-acting, safe, and highly effective, helping your body recover from dehydration and nutrient depletion in record time.

Safety and Prerequisites:

Your health and safety are always our top priority. Before beginning any treatment, we encourage all clients to consult with their primary care provider for any chronic or acute medical concerns. In emergencies, we strongly advise calling 911 or visiting the nearest urgent care.

At Replenish 360, each client completes a thorough medical history and signs an informed consent form before treatment. Our professional staff ensures that every session is tailored to your individual needs, with precautions in place for your safety.

Appointments and Availability:

- Individual and group services available
- Early registration recommended due to high demand
- Sessions and appointments subject to availability and change
- Seasonal promotions and discounted group rates offered

Our IV Hydration Therapy is available both at our state-of-the-art wellness clinic and through our mobile services, making it easy to access intravenous vitamins whenever and wherever you need them.

Why IV Hydration Therapy Works:

Unlike oral supplements that pass through the digestive system with limited absorption, iv vitamins deliver nutrients directly into the bloodstream. This ensures 100% bioavailability, faster results, and immediate relief from dehydration and nutrient deficiencies.

Our clients often report:

- Increased energy and focus
- Improved athletic performance and recovery
- Relief from hangovers and illness symptoms
- Enhanced immune function
- Reduced stress and fatigue
- Radiant skin and overall vitality

With R360 Signature Hydration, you are not just rehydrating—you are revitalizing your entire system with the power of targeted vitamin infusion therapy.

Experience the R360 Difference:

At Replenish 360, we pride ourselves on offering a holistic wellness experience that combines the science of hydration with the benefits of natural healing and relaxation. Whether you are an athlete, a busy professional, a traveler, or simply someone who wants to feel better and perform at your best, our IV Hydration Therapy can make a real difference in your life.
