

Discover the Heart of Yorta Yorta Country: Experiences at the Dharnya Centre

Nestled within the breathtaking Barmah National Park in Victoria, the Dharnya Centre stands as a beacon of Aboriginal culture, history, and natural beauty. More than just a destination, it's an immersive gateway to understanding the rich heritage of the Yorta Yorta People and the stunning environment they have cared for for millennia.

A Journey into Aboriginal Culture

At its core, the Dharnya Centre is dedicated to providing authentic Aboriginal cultural experiences. Visitors have the unique opportunity to connect directly with Yorta Yorta Knowledge Holders who share their deep understanding of the land, traditions, and stories. Imagine walking the ancient paths of the Yorta Yorta, hearing the whispers of history, and feeling the profound connection to country. These aren't just tours; they are powerful cultural exchanges that leave a lasting impact.

Eco-Tourism at its Finest

Beyond cultural immersion, the Dharnya Centre champions eco-tourism, inviting you to explore the unparalleled natural wonders of Barmah National Park. As the world's largest River Red Gum forest, Barmah is a place of immense ecological significance. The Centre facilitates experiences that highlight this natural marvel, from guided walks through towering trees to tranquil boat tours along the waterways, offering glimpses of diverse wildlife and the intricate ecosystems that thrive here. It's a chance to witness responsible tourism that respects and conserves the environment.

Education for the Next Generation

For educators and students, the Dharnya Centre offers invaluable school camp programs designed to inspire and educate. These programs are curriculum-aligned, providing a unique opportunity for young people from Foundation to Year 12 to learn about Aboriginal culture, history, and environmental stewardship in an engaging, hands-on setting. With new 40-bed facilities set to open for 2026 bookings, the Centre is expanding its capacity to host even more students, fostering a deeper appreciation and respect for Indigenous culture and the natural world.

Heritage Tours: Stepping Back in Time

Delve into the living history of the Barmah region through dedicated heritage tours. These experiences shed light on the enduring presence and resilience of the Yorta Yorta People, revealing ancient practices, significant sites, and the profound connection between culture and landscape. It's an opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of Australia's true history, told from an Indigenous perspective.

The Dharnya Centre is more than just a place to visit; it's a place to learn, reflect, and connect. Whether you're seeking a profound cultural experience, an inspiring educational journey, or simply to immerse yourself in the natural beauty of Barmah National Park, the Dharnya Centre offers an unforgettable experience.
