

EATO- Indian Street Food

Located in the heart of Scarborough, every dish at eaTO tells a story — of street-side vendors perfecting recipes over generations, of festivals, family, and flavor. Whether it's the tang of tamarind in a pani puri, or the comforting spice of Chole Bhature — each bite is a journey back to the streets of India. We're not just serving food — we're serving memories, culture, and a piece of home.
