Varanasi Prayagraj Ayodhya Tour

- A single trip that threads together three of North India's most sacred cities: the eternal ghats of Varanasi, the holy confluence at Prayagraj, and the temple town of Ayodhya.
- The route is planned so travel time never eats into darshan time — comfortable transfers, an evening at the Ganga Aarti, a dip near the Triveni Sangam, and unhurried hours at the Ram Janmabhoomi complex.
- It suits pilgrims who want the complete circuit covered properly rather than rushed through in a single overnight dash.

Ayodhya Varanasi Prayagraj Tour

- Prefer to begin your journey at the birthplace of Lord Ram? This itinerary opens in Ayodhya, moves on to the timeless lanes and river ghats of Varanasi, and closes at the Sangam in Prayagraj.
- Starting the circuit from Ayodhya works especially well for groups travelling in from Lucknow or the eastern districts of Uttar Pradesh, keeping road time short between each city.
- Every leg includes a private vehicle, a known hotel, and a local guide familiar with temple timings and aarti schedules.

Varanasi Prayagraj and Ayodhya Tour Package

- A complete package means you are not juggling separate bookings for cabs, rooms, and temple visits. Our Varanasi, Prayagraj and Ayodhya package bundles stay, transport, and sightseeing into one clear itinerary.
- Accommodation is chosen close to the ghats and temple complexes so pilgrims spend less time commuting and more time at the sites that matter.
- Pricing is transparent from the first quote, with no hidden add-ons once the journey begins.

Varanasi Prayagraj Ayodhya Tour Package

- Families, temple committees, and small groups often ask for one thing above all: flexibility. This package can be adjusted in duration and pace while still covering Varanasi, Prayagraj, and Ayodhya in full.
- Add an extra night at any city, request a slower morning at the ghats, or fit in a visit to a nearby shrine — our team tailors the plan around the group, not the other way round.
- Book directly with Spiritual Path Travels for an itinerary built around how you actually want to travel.
