WHAT'S INSIDE THIS GUIDE

- Scholarship for B.Tech
- Government Scholarship
- Scholarship Scheme
- Scholarship Program for Graduation Students

Scholarship for B.Tech

Engineering studies come with real costs — tuition, hostel fees, books and lab charges add up fast. A well-chosen scholarship for B.Tech students can cover a meaningful share of that spend, based on merit, family income or category-based eligibility. AIUGSEE's entrance examination gives undergraduate engineering aspirants a single, transparent route to qualify for funded seats, so a strong result at the entrance stage can translate directly into real savings across all four years.

- Merit & income-based eligibility
- Covers tuition & hostel costs
- Single entrance exam route
- Open to engineering aspirants nationwide

Government Scholarship

A government scholarship remains one of the most reliable ways for Indian students to fund their undergraduate education without taking on debt. These programs are backed by central or state education departments, follow clear eligibility rules, and are renewed each year based on academic performance. AIUGSEE works as a single entrance platform that connects eligible undergraduate students to these government-backed opportunities across India, replacing scattered applications with one transparent exam and result.

- Backed by central & state departments
- No repayment required
- Renewed annually on performance
- One exam, multiple opportunities

Scholarship Scheme

Every **scholarship scheme** is built around its own mix of eligibility criteria, award amount and renewal conditions, which can make comparing options confusing for first-time applicants. AIUGSEE simplifies that process by evaluating students through one standardized entrance examination and matching qualified candidates to the scheme that fits their course, category and financial background — so families spend less time searching and more time preparing.

- Simplified eligibility matching
- Standardized entrance evaluation
- Covers multiple courses & categories
- Transparent selection process

Scholarship Program for Graduation Students

A well-structured scholarship program for graduation students looks at more than exam marks — family income, category, course type and state quotas all play a role in final selection. AIUGSEE's platform is designed specifically for undergraduate applicants, giving graduation-level students a fair, exam-based chance to qualify for funding regardless of which city or state they're applying from. The result is a scholarship pathway that's open, rules-based and accessible to students across the country.

- Open to all undergraduate courses
- Fair, exam-based selection
- Considers income & category quotas
- Nationwide accessibility
