Certificates and transcripts, handled end to end

Supporting students applying to universities worldwide

Why the Medium of Instruction Certificate Matters

Most students preparing to study abroad discover this requirement late in the process: a Medium of Instruction Certificate confirms that your previous degree was taught in English, letting many universities waive a separate language test. Without it, applications can stall at the final stage.

Saves a Language Test

Skip IELTS or TOEFL where the university accepts it.

Issued by Your College

We coordinate directly with your institution's registrar.

Fast Turnaround

Get Your Transcript Certificate Online

Visiting a university office in person for every document request isn't realistic once you've graduated and moved cities — or countries. Getting a Transcript Certificate Online means your academic record can be requested, verified and sent digitally, wherever you happen to be.

- 1 Share your academic and identity details
- 2 We liaise with your university registrar
- 3 Your transcript is verified and sealed
- 4 Delivered digitally or by courier

How to Apply for Transcript Online Without the Guesswork

Every university has its own portal, fee structure and processing time, which makes a single application feel like three different jobs. World Document Services standardises the process — one request form, one team tracking your status, and one point of contact until the transcript reaches its destination.

University Transcripts for Students Abroad

International students face an added layer of complexity: getting University Transcripts from an Indian institution while living overseas, then having them authenticated for use in a foreign country. We handle the coordination on both ends, so the document arrives ready to use.

From apostille to embassy attestation, we know exactly which stamp your destination country expects.

What we manage

- University registrar coordination
- Apostille and attestation
- Embassy and consulate liaison
- Secure digital and courier delivery

Every document, handled with care

Ready to Get Your Documents Moving?

Whether it's a Medium of Instruction Certificate or a full set of university transcripts, World Document Services keeps your application on track — start to finish.
